BROWN PUNK INTRODUCES...

KIRA

Brought to the music forefront by producer Tore Johansson (Franz Ferdinand & The Cardigans) and before being discovered by Brown Punk, Kira began her musical journey at 17 to join her first rock band.

Drawing from her personal experiences including relationships and her life on the road from LA to the UK to across Europe, she created a musical style of her own, self proclaimed as 'soul funk' – which perfectly captures her rough edge and moody tales.

The genre defying sounds of Kira combine swampy blues with a unique combination of rocking guitar riffs, melodic bass lines, quirky drums and surprising chord changes, resulting in a goose- bump inducing musical melange.

Kira's career has seen her perform gigs and concerts around the world, to great critical acclaim. This year she was awarded with a grammy for best female solo artist at the Danish Music Awards.

Tricky comments: "Kira has the best voice I've heard since Janis Joplin, no argument."

Kira is joined by The Gospel - Jens Linggard on bass, Petter Lindgard on drums and Martin Gjerstad on keyboard - with her first single 'Skating Your Pool', out 24th September.

This is Kira in all her simplicity. A brave and brilliant work in progress.
